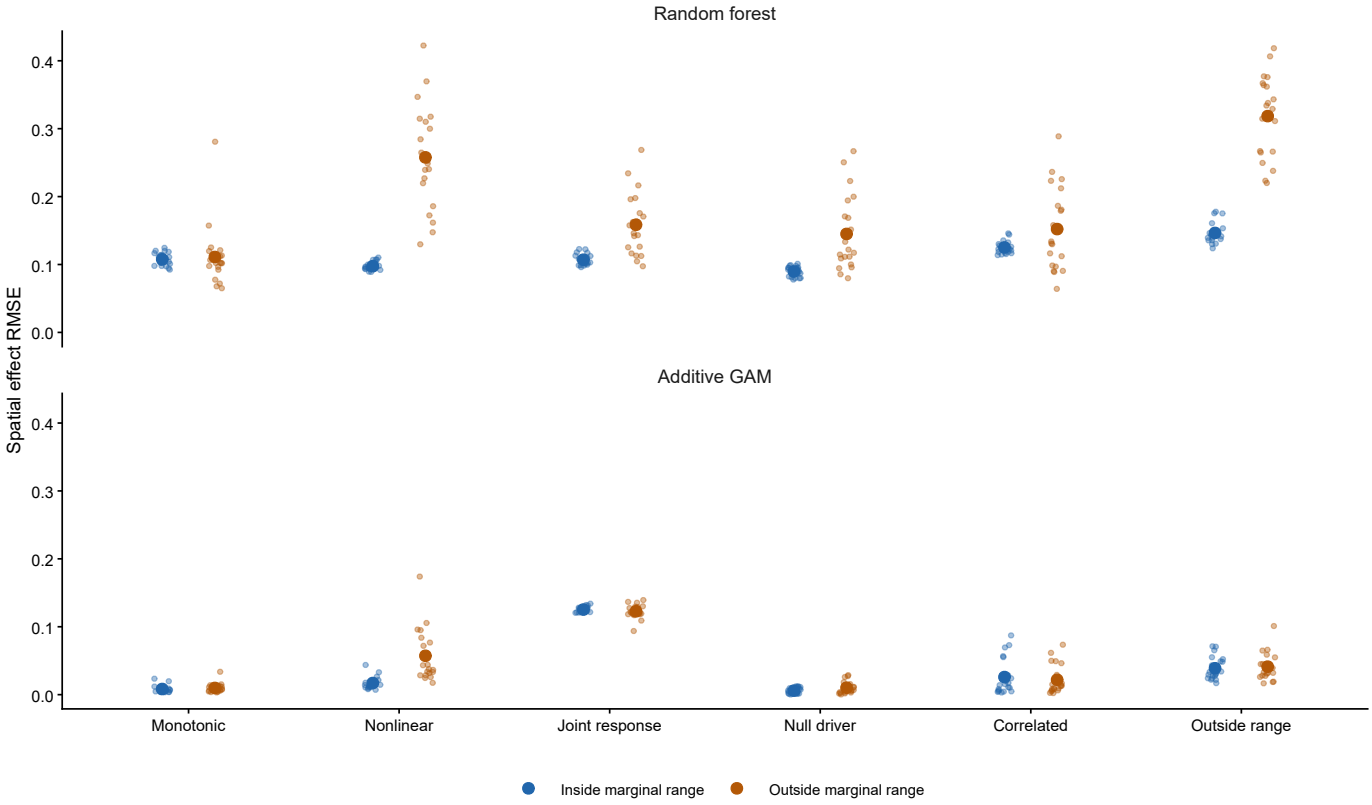
Training-range flags and effect-map error



Small points: independent datasets; large points: means. Empty domains have no points.
Range: each predictor's training 1st-99th percentiles in both compared environments.
Marginal range flags do not detect unsupported joint combinations or guarantee accuracy.